

“The Curse On America!”

By Dea Warford

Word: "Open your mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction." (Prov. 31:9)

Wisdom: Abortion always brings an inherent curse with it!

The Curse that Abortion Brings:

Deut. 30:19: "I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both you and your seed may live".

I believe that America is experiencing the judgment of God because of its mass murder of children through abortion! As our devotional verse today states in Deut. 30:19:

"I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both you and your seed may live."

To "choose life," by choosing that our "seed may live," is to choose "blessing" over "cursing". They are called; "Pro-choice," these pro-abortion humanists, but they really should be called "Pro-curse!" Abortion is a choice, for sure, but it is a choice of "death."

Life is a blessing, and giving life to a child brings a blessing: a child to a family, another American to contribute to society, and the blessing of living on earth that the newborn will enjoy (Not to mention its potential as an eternal servant and worshipper of the Creator!).

Death is a curse, and killing a child brings a curse with it. In Worland, Wyoming, a woman came for prayer that had had five abortions. I had to cast demons out of her! She had brought a curse on herself. (I went back to the city years later, and apparently she had opened herself up to demons again because she had committed suicide!)

Women have died on the operating table having abortions, or have become sterile as a result, never again to have kids even when wanted! Depression, guilt, remorse, and demonic bondage are a further part of the "curse" of killing little children. Lost future generations who could bless our nation and our economy; children who will never get to visit their parent bringing them comfort in their old age: these are some of the curses of abortion.

But there are other intrinsic curses which result from abortions. You, who are older, (like me): haven't we seen an increase in violence and murder in America since abortion was made legal in the early seventies? What vicious violent demons did we unleash on our nation by making a covenant with hell? "We have made a covenant with death, and with hell we are in agreement" (Isa. 28:15). When we make a covenantal law legalizing abortion, we are "agreeing" with hell.

Satan is a murderer (John 8:44, 10:10) and so tried to kill Moses in Egypt by killing all the little male children. Later, He tried to kill Jesus by killing all the young children in the Bethlehem area. Satan is still trying to kill future Christian leaders by killing all the little babies he possibly can while they are still in the womb. By America legalizing satanically inspired murder by abortion, we have given place (Eph. 4:26, 27) to murderous demons in every other facet of our society.

The Canaanites worshiped the heathen god "Moloch" by burning their children to death in hopes that Moloch would bless them financially. In America today (often for financial considerations), many are aborting their children; whose tiny bodies will likely then be incinerated in fire. In God's eyes this is idolatry, as real as in Canaan. And, it surely engenders us to the same judgment:

"They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons, and shed innocent blood . . . Whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan and the land was polluted with blood . . . Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people . . . And He gave them into the hand of the heathen, and they that hated them ruled over them." (Psalms 105:37-41).

When Islamic Terrorists destroyed the World Trade Center, destroying 2,700 lives, both Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson (proven elder statesmen in the body of Christ with high-visibility through television) rose up to warn that this tragedy happened, "because of America's sin." Liberal theologians, the media and politicians angrily retorted, "How dare you suggest such a thing!"

America just doesn't get it! They think when we talk about the "judgment of God"; we mean God is mad; so He's throwing thunderbolts at us. The judgment of God is best understood as the turning of His back on his people. The world is already judged (John 12:31), so without God's blessing, awful things begin to happen (something many backsliders have discovered to their sorrow).

The judgment of God means that He can no longer bless us (Prov. 10:22) because we have brought a curse upon ourselves. The judgment of God means that He can no longer protect us, but rather (and reluctantly), He must withdraw the favor He's given us with our enemies (Prov. 16:7). God's laws are given to bless and protect us. But when we sin and break His laws, we unleash curses, demons, worse sins, and set in motion laws of sowing and reaping (James 6:7, 8) which are as certain as the law of gravity.

The greater the sin; the greater the curse. Murder is a great sin! And, abortion IS murder. Paul warned that in the last days,

"Men shall be lovers of their own selves . . . without natural affection." (II Tim. 3:2, 3- King James Version).

America's preoccupation with self-love has developed into a mind-set that sees abortion, not as murder, but as a form of "birth-control" and a "woman's right to her body". This is unnatural affection. It has brought a curse upon our land. I believe God is judging us now by letting us reap what we have sown in violence, gang deaths, child abuse, murder, suicide, and most recently, terrorist attacks.

Conservative Christians are deeply concerned about the unfolding Obama care bill because of its desire to provide birth-control for everyone. It is feared that the "Morning After Pill" will be mass produced and provided to everyone under this new medical bill, under the guise of a form of birth control. And the "Morning After Pill" controls birth by forcing the earliest means of abortion! What will it take for America to come to its senses? Surely only a revival of heart-felt, life-transforming, zeal-producing religion!

Let us beg God for forgiveness for America's sins. Let us pray that the church will become the church again: salt and light in a dark world. And, let us resolve to never accept or allow ourselves to be "conformed to this world." Rather, let us be "transformed by the renewing of your mind." (Romans 12:1, 2).
(Let's take a needed break from this difficult subject!)

The one thing that forever polarizes Pro-lifers and those who are Pro-Choice is the fact that Pro-Lifers use the Word of God as the final arbiter of the controversy and Pro-Abortionists use "reason" (rooted in the pseudo-science of evolution and eugenics; which also fueled Nazi Germany's gas chambers) and liberal-feminist's championed "women's rights." The Word has a lot to say on this subject too. Let's consider some Scriptures which relate to abortion . . .

Psalm 127:3: "Children are the heritage of the Lord and the fruit of the womb is His reward."

That which is within the womb is called a "heritage," "fruit," and a "reward." It isn't "reproductive rights" or a "financial consideration": something to be treated like an unwanted tumor. God hates abortion, because according to . . . Prov. 6:16-19: God hates "hands that shed innocent blood". The shedding of innocent blood is murder. There is no one more innocent than a fetus! No unborn child ever committed a crime, much less one worthy of death!

Ps. 139:13-18: "For you have formed my inward parts: you have covered me in my mother's womb. . . My substance was not hidden from You, when I was made in secret and intricately formed. . . Your eyes saw my substance, yet being unformed and in your book all my members were written which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there were none of them."

Notice it says, "You have formed my inward parts." God formed that baby: not a rapist or a feminist. Once conceived, it is no longer subject to "Planned Parenthood" counseling, but is subject to the laws of God, its Creator. A human fetus is not "a bunch of cells and stuff," but is the handiwork of God who "formed (our) inward parts" and it has a predetermined identity: "All my members were written" could surely be referring to what scientists call its "genetic code."

Luke 1:41: When John the Baptist was still unborn, he "leaped" in his mother's womb as Mary came near. Mary's baby, Jesus, was at that time still but a fetus. Even an unborn prophet had more sense than today's educated abortionists! He rejoiced at the great destiny of that little fetus. We'd be wise to rejoice also at the destiny and potential of every fetus.

Luke 1:43: John's mother asked, "Why is this, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?" Elizabeth called that fetus her "Lord." Other fetuses too might be called mothers, fathers, doctors or lawyers. They're just yet unborn.

Luke 1:15, 16: (Speaking of John the Baptist) "He shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb." If the Holy Spirit determined that even an unborn child was worthy of His presence and power, who could ever presume to snuff out any potential vessel of His glory?

Jer. 1:5: "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you . . . And ordained you a prophet to the nations". God knew Jeremiah before he was even conceived!!! That doesn't, of course, mean that Jeremiah or any of us had a "pre-existence." Rather, it means that God, in His foreknowledge, views his future plan and relationship with the unborn so intimately that it is the equivalent of "knowing" one, like a friend, in the present. I wouldn't want to kill any of God's friends, would you?

Can you imagine the sorrow of a Heavenly Father who loves each one of His creations so dearly when, by the millions, His personally "known" children and eternal "friends" are snatched away from their carefully planned the earthly service? Notice further that God "ordained (Jeremiah) a prophet to the nations" before he was even born. How many other prophets, states-men, inventors, or musicians had God ordained to bless a nation, but that blessing was stamped out through abortion?

Isa. 49:5: "The Lord that formed me from the womb to be his servant". An unborn child has a providential future service to his God and to his world. A future parent should never even consider "which abortion clinic?" but rather "which college?"

Job 3:19: speaks of miscarried or stillborn "infants which never saw light." Stillborn fetuses and babies are infants, human beings in every sense, just ones who simply "never saw light" on earth. But, hallelujah, the Word adds: "There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary are at rest". No Doctor is at work in the next world "troubling" infants. "There" (in heaven) deceased fetuses are "at rest" in His light.

Matt. 18:10: "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I tell you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven". Little children are personally appointed angels but not to protect them from all harm (Apparently even angels can't protect an unborn child from a determined murderous mother and Doctor!). Still, you can be sure; their angels give an accurate report to the Heavenly Father when someone "despises" one of these helpless innocents! Would you want an angel informing God that you had murdered one of His "little ones?"

Matt. 19:13-15: "Permit little children, and forbid them not to come to me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven".

When one takes the life of a fetus, he violates Jesus' command by "forbidding" that child from coming to Christ during his lifetime: a serious offense indeed! Furthermore, when Jesus said "of such is the kingdom of heaven," He was revealing that heaven is filled with "little children" (miscarried, stillborn, or aborted at birth): rejected of men, but accepted and loved of the Father. Innocent children are gladly allowed entrance into heaven but where do their murderers end up?

If you in the past are one of the many who either had an abortion or were party to it, you can be forgiven. David was a murderer, yet God forgave him and he even became a "Man after God's own heart." (Act 13:22). Don't let Satan condemn you over your past sin. Confess it and put it under the blood and keep it there! Once forgiven, just commit yourself henceforth to help others avoid the same mistake!

If you have vacillated in the past on your view of abortion, make a decision today to let your opinion on the matter be determined solely by what God's Word says. You will be judged by the Word of God, and the Word is unequivocal on the matter of abortion. So, henceforth be a "doer of the Word" (James 1:22) and take your stand against abortion! As today's devotional verse command,

"Open your mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction." (Proverbs 31:9)

Prayer: "Father, forgive our nation and the millions in it who have partaken of the great sin of abortion. Help me to do my part in prayer, witness and counsel towards others to help stop this satanically inspired evil!"

Confession: "I will " Open (my) mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction. (Prov. 31:9) (All Scripture references are from the New King James Version, Thomas Nelson, Nashville, 1982; unless otherwise noted)
