

Prophecy And Confessions For Declaring Abundance

By Dave Roberson

Take My Word and speak against the strongholds of lack. As you declare an abundance, you will release Me, for the membrane between Me and you is getting very thin, and I will be able to come and pour out on your circumstances from within you, because that is how close I am.

So speak the victory, pull down the strongholds, and rejoice. Spend extra time in worshipping and praising Me, because I am close. An outpouring is close. It will be preceded by My pouring out on many of you to prepare the way, to get things ready, to take every media, to pull down every stronghold that I might establish my Foundation.

Rejoice and be glad, for you who have ears to hear are going into the land of plenty. I need you as a testimony of what is over there, so be strong. Bring it back to those who ride the fence, and say, "Get in, for He loves you!!"

I speak the Victory and pull down the strongholds and rejoice. I spend extra time in worshipping and praising You because You are close. An outpouring is close. It will be preceded by You pouring out on many of us to prepare the way, to get things ready to take every media, to pull down every stronghold so that you might establish your foundation.

I rejoice and am glad, for I have ears to hear and I am going into the land of plenty. I am Your testimony of what is over there, so I am strong. I bring it back to those who ride the fence, saying, "Get in, for He loves you!!"

- Father, we speak Your Word and say that Jesus came that we might have life, and we have it more abundantly. (John 10:10)
- No weapon that is formed against us prospers, and every tongue that rises against us in judgment, we condemn. This is our heritage as servants of the Lord, and our righteousness is of You, Lord. (Isaiah 54:17)
- We say that we know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though, he was rich, yet for our sakes He became poor, that we through His poverty might be rich—by His grace we are made rich. (2 Cor.8:9)
- Your grace abounds toward us, and we always have all sufficiency in all things and I am abounding to every good work. (2 Corinthians 9:8)
- The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but we seek the Lord and lack no good thing. (Psalm 34:10)
- What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not His own son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? Yes, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loves us. (Romans 8:31, 32, 37)
- For whosoever is born of God overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. (John 5:4)
- So as Your children, Father, we pull down the strongholds of lack and poverty over ourselves, our ministry, our entire family, and the commission You have given us. We condemn the tongues of those demonic spirits from dominating our lives with their words and activities, and tell them to cease and go to the dry, void places and be Him. We have victory! We have abundance!
