

Brace for Impact

By Patrick Wyett

I write this just before the scheduled election of 2016 so I don't know the outcome as yet. God does and so might you by the time you read this. From my spot in time, I offer a few observations. It will be either Hillary or Donald Trump for president. There are third party options but none are relevant as to the out-come except to pull votes away from the only two contenders. Some will not vote, allowing those who do to decide things.

Such a tact does not absolve one of responsibility in this matter, rather, it's an abdication of duty as a citizen of this nation. To my fellow citizens, you are blessed to have the opportunity to vote, to live in a nation where our representatives and leaders seek such assent from the consent of the governed. In all nations throughout most of history, the concept of a person getting to cast a legitimate vote to decide the course of government was unthinkable. God has given us the right to do so here, a right wrested from tyranny at the price of patriot's blood.

For conscience' sake, vote. Honor the God of heaven with your vote and seek His discernment in doing so.

Some say there's no real choice for president. I beg to differ. Donald Trump wasn't my first, second, third or even fourth choice in the primary. But now he's the only choice to defeat the demonstrably most vile, corrupt, criminal liar in the history of American politics. That's a pretty high bar considering the last eight years.

As a side note, Barry Soetoro, AKA Barack Hussein Obama, has been out campaigning on behalf of Hillary. What a sign of our wicked times; the most unqualified person to ever run for president supporting the most disqualified person to ever run for president. There is a certain consistency with evil.

“Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.” (Matthew 7:16-18)

What of the fruits of the candidates? Donald Trump is Pro-Life, Pro-Gun, wants to secure our borders from illegal invasion and seeks to put a halt to the insane importation of Islam into our nation and remove its destructive influence from government. More than words, he has surrounded himself with good people such as Mike Pence, Mike Huckabee, Ben Carson and many others. Ted Cruz supports Mr. Trump.

Donald Trump has said, “I will protect (Christians)... because we're not being protected,” and “a Trump administration, our Christian heritage will be cherished, protected, defended like you've never seen before.” Protected from the likes of the Clinton crime syndicate.

Speaking of which.

Hillary Clinton and the words “corrupt” and “evil” have become synonymous. Her fruit is well-known. She is a staunch supporter of any and all abortion, up to the birth of the child. She defends the baby slaughterhouses of Planned Parenthood and idolizes its racist founder, Margaret Sanger. Hillary's vocally anti-gun, not surprising from a Saul Alinsky Marxist. Learn from history or be victim to its repetition. The horrific government-sponsored massacres of the 20th century were preceded by civilian disarmaments.

The defenseless are so much easier to slaughter than the armed.

Hillary openly advocates for open borders (the destruction of our nation's sovereignty), wants to greatly expand the importation of Muslims into the country, and champions the homosexual agenda.

I detailed her email-related treason and criminality in my last article, "As the World Burns". More recent revelations have uncovered the sickening pedophile activities that both she and Bill have participated in. The info's out there if you have the stomach for it. Key words "Jeffrey Epstein" and "Orgy Island".

Read the 1st chapter of Romans. Hillary, by biblical definition, is a hater of God. And by simple human observation, a hater of America and of humanity. Her profane tirades are legion, one in particular related to me by a friend who personally endured one.

Hatred gushes from her mouth like an overflowing toilet without a shut-off valve.

Despite these things, I hear those claiming to be Christians supporting Hillary. This is a grave contradiction between word and action.

Jesus said:

"Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter (Holy Spirit) will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove (reprimand) the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment." (John 16:7-8)

Every true Christian has the Holy Spirit indwelling in us, giving us discernment of good and evil. This is not a gift of the Holy Spirit, it is an essential function. Those lacking discernment about Hillary Clinton have not the Holy Spirit within them. One can't be in open rebellion against God and have a Christian faith. The two are diametrically opposed. We are to repent of evil, not vote for it.

I realize the gravity and implications of what I just wrote.

Yet I write the hard things that must be said to warn deceived people of the judgment that they face. If party or personal ideology take priority over God's moral absolutes, these things are your god, not the one true God of the Bible.

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." (Matthew 6:24)

Mammon usually in context refers to money but can apply to anything worldly and not of God. Dear ones, no true Christian can support Hillary Clinton. Yes I know of Donald Trump's past. It's his future that intrigues me. As I've detailed, he's the best option. The last perfect man in an election lost to Barabbas 2000 years ago. Through His loss, we as Christians have won eternal life.

As for now, we have an obligation and duty to our faith and country. What's that look like?

Is there a global conspiracy to rule the world?

Revelation certainly confirms this as Satan's plan. Of interest, you'd have to be 58 years old or older to have voted in a presidential election year that hasn't featured a Bush or Clinton running for president or vice-president. 1976 was the last time this wasn't the case, save 2012 in which Hillary was Secretary of State, personally enriching herself by selling influence to finance her current run at the White House.

1980; George HW Bush ran for president in the primary, lost to Ronald Reagan and became his running mate. 1984; George HW Bush, vice-president. 1988; George HW Bush, president. 1992; George HW Bush & Bill Clinton, president. 1996; Bill Clinton, president. 2000; George W Bush, president. 2004; George W Bush, president. 2008; Hillary Clinton, president (lost in primary). 2012, Hillary Clinton part of the Obama team. 2016; Hillary Clinton and Jeb Bush, president.

Random coincidence?

Will Trump win? Despite the desperately skewed polls, I believe he has a decisive lead in the popular vote. In our lawless government, that might not be enough.

My feeling is the only way that Hillary can win is by massive voter fraud, the likes of which we're already seeing and has been verified as a core campaign strategy throughout Hillary's criminal run. Just ask Bernie. Or Donald.

Look up videos from Project Veritas for an inside look and admission of such tactics, going back many years. Let me give you a brief preview.

Scott Foval, a point man for Hillary and the Democratic National Committee (DNC) for such things as inciting violence at Trump rallies and facilitating voter fraud, was fired from his position only after the Project Veritas videos came out. Please note, he wasn't fired because he did these things. These actions are what he was paid to do. Such illegal, immoral and unethical conduct was his job duty as assigned by Hillary and the DNC with their full knowledge and oversight.

Foval was fired only because he got caught admitting to what he was doing and who was directing him. You think he might still be doing the same things, just getting paid by a different route? I bet he keeps his mouth shut from now on.

Whoever wins, there will be blowback. This nation is divided much as it was prior to the Civil War. In some ways more so.

Much can still happen between now, the election and the inauguration of a new president. It will not be a smooth transition, if indeed there is one.

Theories abound as to what is yet to come. Take comfort in knowing that nothing surprises God. He never scratches His head and blurts, "Wow, I never saw that coming." All-knowing, omniscient, omnipresent, all-powerful, and invincible. Loving and merciful, yet righteous and holy. Those who execute evil plans play right into God's master plan.

Sin will be judged, evil will be vanquished. Fear not for the things that must yet come. Heaven awaits.

Don't place your faith in election outcomes, put your faith, all of it, in Jesus. The King is coming!

But until then, until you see Him with your own eyes, be about your Father's business. Light and salt my friends. As Patrick Henry said, "The battle, sir, is not to the strong alone; it is to the vigilant, the active, the brave."

Elections are barometers in the battle of good versus evil. Let us see how November 8 is decided. That said, brace for impact.
