

Living Waters!

Preparing Revival!

It's on his way!
It will not stop!
It is on his way like a flood!
It will be refreshing!
It will not be possible to avoid it!
It included the most valuating things of God's Kingdom!
I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys:
I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. (Isaiah 41:18)

And so much more...!

When gold by Purifying Fire has reached the very last step in purification it becomes clear as crystal!
(Purified Divine nature!)

Prepare yourself! Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground:
for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and rain righteousness upon you. (Hosea 10:12)

"Your" fallow ground" is the ground which has once been cultivated, but for a long period ignored and became waste again! The word refers this to the state of your heart! Does is still go aligned with God, so you are able to receive the "seed", which refers to the Word of God!? Examine your heart in which condition it is! Are you really walking every day with the Lord Yeshua, the Messiah or are you still under the dominion of the prince of darkness?

Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? (2 Corinthians 13:5)

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1 John 1:9)

If we confess our sins one by one! God will at least do four things for us:

1. Be faithful to us.
2. Be just with us.
3. Forgive our sins.
4. Cleanse us from all unrighteousness. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Isaiah 40:3)

How to prepare your whole heart and seek the Lord?

Examine your heart in which condition it is! (2 Corinthians 13:5)(Ezekiel 2:5)

Confess your sin one by one, not by just general confessions! (1 John 1:9)

Give you heart to Yeshua, not to other loves that infinitely offended the Lord!

Sow yourself in Righteousness (Hosea 10:12)

Reap in Mercies (Hosea 10:12)

Break up your fallow Ground (Hosea 10:12)

Prepare ye the way (Isaiah 40:3)

For it's time to seek the Lord with all the heart (Hosea 10:12) (Deuteronomy 4:29)

Return from backsliding and sin

Stop doing evil (Jeremiah 4:3, 4)

By humbling yourself before the Lord! (2 Chronicles 7:14)

Continually (1 Chronicles 16:11)

By prayer

By preparing the heart (2 Chronicles 19:3)

Diligently (Hebrews 11:6)

Conversion, a change of direction, a new walk with God!

(Psalms 19:7; Psalm 51:13; Matthew 18:3; Luke 22:32; Acts 3:19; James 5:19-20)

Break up your fallow ground!

To bring your mind & soul in a state that it's able to receive the Word of God

To be broken up

Confessing your sin one by one

Mellowed down

Softening of your heart

Good Preparation of your heart

Examine thoroughly your heart

Consider your own doings

Get to know your own character

See where you really are (from the inside)

Parable of the "sower"

Not by the way side!

Not to be offended, when tribulation or persecution arises!

Thus not into the stony places!

Not among the thorns, the care of this world; the deceitfulness of riches!

Good, because prepared by taking out the stones and thorns and plowing and properly care in cultivation.

1. "Sow to yourselves in righteousness" – This means to stop sinning and start doing what is right in all things—to consecrate to do that which is good and right. Sowing and reaping always stand out against each other, as labor and reward! (2 Corinthians 9:6; Galatians 6:7-9).

2. "Reap in mercy" – This means to accept and appropriate the mercy of God extended to us. If we do not accept mercy from God it will not be ours, for both sowing in righteousness and reaping in mercy are our responsibility. Righteousness is here to do, and mercy is here to receive, but neither will be a man's experience until he does what is right and accepts the mercy provided. (Matthew 5:7; Mark 11:25-26)

3. "Break up your fallow ground" – This also is the work of man. Each must break up the ground of his own life (your heart). Fallow ground is that which has been plowed but not sown; ground not in use; idle ground crusted over and hardened until it needs to be broken up again to receive the seed. Our hearts and wills must be broken and yielded to God. We must make ourselves willing to receive the Word of God and to obey it or seeking Him will not avail us anything. (Matthew 13:3-12, 18-23; James 1:18, 21; 1 Peter 1:23)

4. "Preparing the way of the Lord" – (Isaiah 40:3) is used here figuratively, heralding the coming of the Messiah. It was the custom in the East to send a party of men before a king or a prince to prepare the way before him. They cleared the way of thorns, brambles, and bushes; made bridges; found fording places in the streams; and leveled the ground wherever necessary to make it easier for travel. This kind of custom could be applied figuratively of the preparation of the people to receive Yeshua, the (coming) Lord of Host!

But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. (Matthew 13:23)

Good, because prepared by taking out the stones & thorns and plowing and properly preparing the ground to grow wheat. Fruit bearing depends upon the kind of soil and proper care in cultivation! But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. (Matthew 13:8)

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. (Hebrews 11:6)

Here we see the absolute necessity of faith and the secret of pleasing God. You have to come to God in the right attitude and with the right motives! (Matt 6:5-15; Matt. 7:7-11; Phil. 4:5-6). To believe that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seeks Him. If one can believe this as much as he believes in the existence of God, prayer will be granted. If one believes firmly in His existence and doubts His word, he makes Him a liar and God is under no obligation to answer prayer (James 1:4-8).

Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. (Jeremiah 33:3) You walking and serving God daily or you are under the enemy's dominion! Fire: zeal and refining power (Luke 3:16; Isaiah 4:3-4; Psalm 104:4; Malachi 3:1-4; John 2:17; Acts 2:3; Matthew 3:11)

Remarks about a consuming FIRE:

1. To devour your enemies. For the wicked one a disaster! Destruction!

2. A cleansing FIRE, Revival FIRE, Purifying FIRE, for those who keep their faith in God!

Holy FIRE is a sanctifying, Holy Divine work in the lives and souls of believers. See also at Site of FIRE!

The Holy Spirit filled the house and moved upon the 120 flowing out of their innermost beings like "Rivers of Living waters" (John 7:37-39) and "pour out" (Acts 2:17) which literally means to gush out, to spill out freely, or pour out abundantly like mighty Niagara's of Living waters and power from on High (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8). It was like a "rushing mighty wind" or the blast of a clap of thunder sweeping before it (1 Kings 19:11-12). Along with this mighty thunder or blast came visible forked tongues like fire sitting upon each of the 120 disciples!
