

The Reprobate...Is He Worth Your Intercessions?

The Following prophetic utterance was divinely delivered through Dave Roberson to his Church during a regular worship service in Tulsa, Oklahoma a few years ago. Because of the intensity of this and other prophecies given to his ministry, David felt this and other of prophecies received by his ministry is relevant for the entire Church of Jesus Christ. Please receive this Word from the Lord Jesus.

Dave: A reprobate is somebody who doesn't want to retain God in his knowledge. It is NOT someone whom God will not take. He'll take a person like that if he comes and lays himself down and repents.

A reprobate doesn't want to retain God in his knowledge. In other words, if he could get back, God would take him back. But there is usually not enough in him to get back with, so he moves further and further away.

Here's What God Wants Us To Realize

“As I have said, for you who will not turn loose, I'll not turn loose. For there are many who are walking down that path now, but those whom you single out, and will not turn loose of, I'll not turn loose of them, saith the Lord. I'll surround them with My angels, and I'll send laborer after laborer to address the hardness of their hearts.

But, oh, I would say: Do not trade off the spiritual for the natural in this hour. Come to the place where you know Me; do service to My altars; walk after My Spirit. For the day is coming that you'll be glad for the strength you have in Me, gained in a time when it was not popular to serve Me with all your heart and with no ulterior motives, saith the Lord.

For even this I would say to some of you: You would not be alive today if it wasn't for the prayers of those who hold you up. And even this day, some of you are being suspended in that place with Me by those who love you. Hear what the Spirit would say, for as I move on through the land, a day is coming when all things pertaining to this life shall come to an end.

For the sake of those who believe, teach them to believe more strongly. Its line upon line, from glory to glory. Many are not walking where they once walked, but they're walking in an illumination and an understanding of Me that has not been available for some time. As you increase in Me, I'm able to increase the “all things that are possible” that I do on behalf of others. For still others, the string will be clipped and they'll fall away, because there is nothing I can do.

Hear what the Spirit says: This is not a time to draw away from Me but to draw near. And in particular, hold on to those whom you love, for many hearts will be failing them because of the things that are coming upon this world. Be careful that you're not caught up in the cares of this world. Don't let your heart be worried; and overcharged with the daily things that slowly take a person away from the walk they have established with Me. Be strong, for the first ones to suffer will be those you are holding on to. If you turn loose, there is no hope.

Be not selfish and be not self-serving. For know this: Many who watch you, walk their walk not according to what I do, but according to what You do. Let your light shine before men in the generation that is getting darker and darker, that they may see your good works and come to Me. Hang on and walk upright, for more is at stake than you know, saith the Lord.”
